Chippewa Valley Eye Clinic Welcomes New Vitreoretinal Surgeon

EAU CLAIRE, Wis. — Chippewa Valley Eye Clinic is thrilled to welcome Alex Ringeisen, MD, ophthalmologist, to its team. Dr. Ringeisen is a vitreoretinal surgeon who specializes in medical and surgical retina procedures including intravitreal injections, retinal laser treatments, retinal detachment surgery, epiretinal membrane surgery, vitreous floater removal surgery and macular hole surgery. His focus is in the care of diabetic retinopathy, macular degeneration, retinal vascular disorders and vitreoretinal surgery.

Originally from Lakeville, Minnesota, Dr. Ringeisen attended medical school at the University of Minnesota – Twin Cities in Minneapolis. Following his ophthalmology residency at the University of Wisconsin Hospitals and Clinics, Dr. Ringeisen completed a two-year vitreoretinal surgery fellowship at VitreoRetinal Surgery in Minneapolis.

Dr. Ringeisen enjoys spending time with his wife, Laura and their two daughters, Wren (22 months) and Elle (eight weeks). He and his wife have been season ticket holders for Wisconsin Badgers Football since 2005, and love hosting tailgates for family and friends at both home and away games. He also enjoys golf, running and traveling to historic sports stadiums.

Dr. Ringeisen is excited to begin his practice at Chippewa Valley Eye Clinic. “CVEC has an incredible reputation in the region for providing outstanding, patient-centered care,” he says. “I look forward to providing vitreoretinal care with this amazing team of technicians, optometrists and ophthalmologists.”

When it comes to patient care, Dr. Ringeisen enjoys teaching patients and their families about vitreoretinal disorders. “It is my goal to have all patients understand and be actively involved in their treatment plan,” he says.

Dr. Ringeisen is a member of American Academy of Ophthalmology, American Society of Retina Specialists, Club Vit, Minnesota Academy of Ophthalmology and Vit-Buckle Society. He is licensed in the State of Minnesota and Wisconsin.

To schedule an appointment with Dr. Ringeisen, or any member of Chippewa Valley Eye Clinic’s team, please call 715-834-8471.
